ASSOCIATIONS AND ADVOCACY (0.15 CEUs)

Wednesday, February 9, 8:30-10 p.m. EST

Representatives will speak about the incredible and often unsung work of various organizations at work to promote and strengthen the stenographic field: Rich Germosen and Meredith Bonn (National Court Reporters Foundation), Stacey Raikes (NCRA STRONG), Carol Naughton (NCRA National Congress of State Associations), Nancy Varallo (Project Steno), and Anthony Frisolone (NCRA's Public Relations Outreach Task Force, Content Creation Task Force). Learning Objectives:

NCRF

1. To educate attendees on the purpose of the National Court Reporters Foundation.
2. To inform attendees of the philanthropic, educational, research, and other charitable activities conducted by NCRF.
3. To educate attendees on the details of the Career Launcher Program.

Project Steno-Bringing Steno to YOUR High School

1. Learn how to get a first meeting with a high school administrator in order to introduce the Basic Training program.
2. Learn tips and techniques for building interest in that program directly with high school students.

NCRA STRONG

1. Learn how to advocate for stenographers from our court systems to our conference rooms so that we will be STRONGer together.
2. Learn about advocacy in the pursuit of justice in our Nation's courts and beyond.

NCSA

1. Learn how state associations collaborate to address common issues affecting the stenographic reporting community.
2. Discover future opportunities that you can get involved.

NCRA Public Relations Outreach Task Force and Content Creation Task Force

1. Understand the goals of the Public Relations Outreach Task Force and Creative Content Task Force within NCRA.
2. The attendee will also be asked to think creatively and to help these task forces by passing along leads to help NCRA raise the profile of the reporting and captioning professions.
